

Weak Kidneys.

To any Kidney sufferer who has not tried my remedy I offer a full dollar worth free. Not a mere sample—but a regular dollar bottle—standard size and staple.

There is nothing to pay, either now or later. I ask no deposit—no promise. You take no risk. The dollar bottle is free—because mine is no ordinary remedy, and I feel so sure of its results that I can afford to make this offer.

In the first place, my remedy does not treat the kidneys themselves. Such treatment is wrong. For the kidneys are not to blame for their weakness or irregularities. They have no power—no self-control. They are operated and actuated by a tiny shred of a nerve which alone is responsible for their condition. If the kidney nerve is strong and healthy the kidneys are strong and healthy. If the kidney nerve goes wrong you know it by the inevitable result—kidney trouble.

This tender nerve is only one of a great system of nerves; this system controls not only the kidneys, but the heart and the liver and the stomach. For simplicity's sake I have called this great nerve system the "Kidney Nerve." They are not the nerves of feeling—not the nerves that enable you to walk, to talk, to act, to think. They are the major nerves and every vital organ of the body is connected with them. For this reason the "Kidney Nerve" is the "Master Nerve" because each act is in such close sympathy with the others that weakness anywhere results in weakness everywhere.

This is why the nerve of the kidney that is weak, but the entire nerve that MAKES it weak. It will take down to you from his stock on foot a dollar bottle of my remedy and will send the bill to you. Write for the free order to-day.

WILL SELL LINES IF PRICE SUITS

John J. Mitchell Says if Chicago and City Railway Can't Agree on Terms Other Means Must Be Resorted To.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, April 10.—"I told Judge Dunne that if the city wanted our lines we would gladly sell them and turn them over to the city for municipal ownership—terms and price being satisfactory. If we can come to an understanding the city can have the system; if we cannot agree on terms and price other means will have to be found for acquiring the lines."

So spoke John J. Mitchell to-day referring to a conversation he had with Mayor-elect Dunne on the train, while on the way from New York to Chicago. Mr. Mitchell added that in the meanwhile the City Railway was going right ahead with the development of the system and its rehabilitation.

Six million dollars, he said, had been authorized for expenditures for new cars and equipment.

Mr. Mitchell said that he pointed out to the Mayor-elect the differences existing between Chicago and Glasgow. "I told him that our people would not put up with the service existing there, that they never would endure waiting for trains simply to get seats; that they wanted to go to the city where they could get the quickest possible manner; that Glasgow was different from Chicago."

YERKES SAYS CHICAGO CAN'T RUN STREET CARS.

SPECIAL BY CABLE TO THE REPUBLIC. London, April 10.—"Chicago can no more run street cars successfully than you can take wings to-morrow and fly to heaven," said Charles T. Yerkes this morning.

"Mark you," he continued, "I do not wish to be understood as talking aggressively or even in a hostile manner. I have a great deal of sympathy for the people of that city. Some of them are going to lose money. They are going to make outsiders lose money."

"Judge Dunne is a man of much intelligence, but what does he know of street railways? He knows the word in the civilized world."

"Chicago's street cars and power-houses will be managed by petty politicians. The number of employees will be so great that they will be able to control the city. They will likely hold the balance of power. Then, think of running the power-houses with such men. I used to be compelled to employ a few such persons in order to prevent certain politicians from having it in for me, as they say. These employees were invariably unscrupulous."

"Think of the 'hook' of the Bathhouse John, or the 'hook' of the appointment of the men who run the street railways. Think of such people having a limited in the purchase of vast quantities of material and in decisions relative to the construction and operation of power-houses. I know the Chicago Council fairly well. I cannot think of many of its members whom I should trust to buy materials for me."

"Chicago's street-car properties run by city managers and fire-pullers—the outlook is dark indeed."

SEEKS TO OUST HOTEL MANAGER

Trust Company of St. Louis County Sues to Secure Possession of Epworth Property.

The Trust Company of St. Louis County yesterday filed a petition in the Clayton Circuit Court asking for an injunction to restrain J. Hal Lynch from continuing in the management of the Epworth Hotel. A temporary restraining order was issued by Judge McElhinney, and served by the Sheriff.

In its petition the plaintiff states that it holds a fee deed of trust on the building, besides a claim for $3,000. Money advanced for operating expenses. There was also a sum of $3,000 advanced to lift a chattel mortgage. In consideration of which the Epworth Company made an assignment to the plaintiff, under which the property was sold at the courthouse door in Clayton, Thomas K. Skinner being the purchaser. He has since transferred it to the trust company.

April 1 the plaintiff leased the property to the C. H. Evans Realty Company for twenty months. The lease provided a rental was $500, the second is to be $525, the third $550, the fourth $575, the fifth $600, and a corresponding reduction of $50 a month for the remainder of the term.

Lynch, however, it is alleged, refused to surrender possession, in consequence of which the plaintiff is threatened with $250 a day.

Several days ago Lynch filed a suit in the Clayton Circuit Court, asking for an injunction to restrain the trust company from conveying the property to him in pursuance of an agreement to that effect.

FIREMAN STUMBLES OVER GIRL Waitress Unconscious From Overdose of Morphine.

A fireman, after extinguishing a small blaze early yesterday morning in the rooming-house of John Kuhlbeck, at No. 8 North Fourteenth street, stumbled across the body of Mary McClay, a waitress, 25 years old, who was unconscious from morphine poisoning.

Mrs. McClay said later that she was afflicted with heart failure, and had been in the habit of taking morphine to relieve it. She said her condition was caused by unintentionally taking an overdose.

An ambulance was called and she was removed to the City Hospital. Her condition is serious, but she will recover.

Gus Gillack, 25 years old, of No. 1820 South Second street, was taken to the City Hospital yesterday morning suffering from a contused back and other injuries, the result of an accident at the Hamilton Shoe Company's factory.

Gillack is employed in the shoe factory at Twenty-first and Locust streets. He was installing new machinery, when a sack gave away and he was jammed between the machinery and the wall. Physicians at the hospital say that Gillack's condition is serious, as it is probable that he sustained internal injuries.

ENGLAND SIGNALLY HONORS CHOATE

Ambassador Elected a Bencher of the Middle Temple—First American Chosen Since the Revolution.

London, April 10.—Ambassador Choate was to-night elected "Master of the Bench of the Middle Temple." Among English lawyers this is the most distinguished honor that they could confer on any outsider, and it is the first time in several generations that other than an English subject has been elected a Bencher of the temple.

The action of to-night calls Mr. Choate to the English bar, and elects him member of the governing body of the Middle Temple. Five signers of the Declaration of Independence have themselves pulled the Middle Temple. Since then not a single American has been a member.
